

Exhibit B-2 – Agent (California) 2023 Fee Schedule – Medicare Supplement

- I. Payment: Centene Corporation, for the benefit of itself and the Affiliates and subsidiaries, (“Company”) shall pay to Agent the following Agent Compensation for each enrollment, effective on or after January 1, 2023, of a Member in a Medicare Supplement product by Agent, subject to the conditions for payment set forth in the Agreement and Section II below:

| Agent Compensation | |
|--------------------|----------------|
| Year 1 | Years 2+ |
| 20% of premium | 10% of premium |

II. Conditions for Payment:

- a. Payment to Agent: Payment will not be made to Agent for applicants under the age of 65 who enroll in a Medicare Supplement product during the first six (6) months of their eligibility to enroll in Part B due to disability. Payment will be made to Agent for applicants turning 65 on the first day of their birthday month and elect their Medicare to begin the month prior. Company shall calculate on a monthly basis the total amount of Agent Compensation due Agent for Members from whom Company has received premium according to Company’s records and pay such total amount on or before the 25th day of the second month following the month of the Member’s enrollment or renewal, as applicable. Any payment discrepancies identified by Agent consistent with Section 4 of the Agreement or by Company shall be reconciled during the next available payment cycle.

- b. Termination: Notwithstanding any provision in the Agreement to the contrary, all payment obligations of Company shall terminate upon termination of the Agreement.

- c. Good Standing: In addition to all other payment conditions under this Agreement and applicable Regulatory Agency requirements, Agent acknowledges that payment is subject to Agent being appointed in accordance with applicable State law and maintaining any required Agent license, whether or not contracted or associated with or actively producing for Company. In the event Agent fails to meet any requirement under this section, all compensation obligations under this Agreement shall terminate.

Please Note: Company reserves the right to modify this Agency/Agent TPME compensation structure/payment cycle or schedule at any time subject to applicable CMS requirements.
